John Part's impressive 2011 continued when he lifted the London Ontario Players Championship to claim a third PDC Pro Tour title of 2011. Hot on the heels of John's 9 darter in his first round defeat to Mark Webster at Blackpool, 'Darth Maple' delighted his home country fans with a 6-4 defeat of top seed Wes Newton in Canada that ensures the likeable three time former World Champion will be making the trip to Dublin for the World Grand Prix, the next big televised PDC event on Sky Sports.

UPCOMING EVENTS

September 24th & 25th Players Championships
19 & 20, Nuland, Holland.

October 1st & 2nd Players Championships 21 &

Qualifying race heats up.

With the next big TV event around the corner, the race to qualify is hotting up for the World Grand Prix in Dublin. The top 14 in the Players Championship Order of Merit will join the top 16 in the PDC rankings plus 2 Irish qualifiers. There's just two Players Championship events in Nuland, Holland to go before the cut-off, pressure time for the players as they battle to win a place in Dublin.
